INDEX For 1964

Alfred, John—The World Oil Monopoly, Jan., 62; Latin America in Ferment, May, 62.

Allan, William—Observations on UAW Convention, May, 43.

Aptheker, Herbert—Murders Most Foul, Jan., 43; Murders Most Foul, II, Feb., 52; Dresden, Destruction and Doomsday, Mar., 46; "The Deputy" and the World's Conscience, April, 46; Southern History and Mythology, May, 48; Integrated Education Requires Integrated Texts, June, 47; Philosophy, Fear and Freedom, July, 42; Dr. Strangelove's Nomination, Sept., 20; The Renewed Old World, Oct., 50; The "Rebel Girl" Passes On, Nov., 40; Present Thinking in Socialist Countries, Dec., 43.

Barnes, Allan—A Cold-War Advocate, Sept., 61.

Becerra, Longino—Central America in Perspective, Dec. 33.

Bellows, Irving—Economic Aspects of the Cuban Revolution, Jan., 14. and Feb., 43; The Economic Outlook, May, 22; Crisis in Latin America, June, 59.

Bert, Erik—Our Changing Farm Economy, June, 35; Thorstein Veblen: Social Critic, July, 47.

Blair Fred—The Presidential Primaries in Wisconsin, June, 31.

Budish, J. M.—Mythmakers and Mythrakers, June, 21; Automation and Monopoly Control, Aug., 56.

Butenko, A.—The Centenary of the First International, Sept., 55.

Cohen, Jack—The State of the Whole People, Apr., 31.

Communist Party of France—Communists and Socialists, Mar., 51.

Communist Party, New York—Ditching the Public Housing Program, Nov., 22.

Communist Party U.S.A.—His Deeds Will Live On, Sept., 2; Fulfill The Election Mandate, Dec., 1.

Corvalan, Luis—The Peaceful Way—A Form of Revolution, Mar., 24.

Critica Marxista (Italy)—For Deeper Study of World Realities, Feb., 24.

Dorothy Healey—The View From Southern California, Dec., 13.

Dunham, Barrows—A Comment on the Comment, Nov., 52.

Eaton, John—Automation and the Second Industrial Revolution, Aug., 36.

Editorial Articles and Comments—The Kennedy Assassination: Why the People Mourned, Jan., 1; Toward Easing World Tensions, Feb., 1; Forty Years of a Crusading Newspaper, March, 1; The Panama Crisis, Mar., 3; President Johnson's Message on Poverty, April, 1; End the War in South Vietnam, April, 5; White Americans and Civil Rights, May, 1; The Country Needs a New Foreign Policy, May, 7; "Soviet Anti-Semitism": The Kichko Book, June, 1; "Soviet Anti-Semitism": The Status of Soviet Jews, July, 1; Automation is New, Aug., 1; A Glorious Voice Stilled, Oct., 2; Whom Does Goldwater Represent, Oct., 8; Two Major Events: A First Look, Nov., 1; American Dialog, Nov., 4.

Editors, The—Reply to Comment on "Why the People Mourned," May, 60.

Finkelstein, Sidney—Evaluation of Henry James, May, 53; The Greatness of Shakespeare, Nov., 54;.

Flynn, Elizabeth Gurley—The Right to Travel, Jan., 8; First Victory Over McCarran Act., Feb., 37; Not Yet End of Road on McCarran Act, July, 16; The I.W.W.—It's Place in History, Sept., 27.

Font, A. W.—What Indeed is Communism?, Apr., 61; Facts for Everyday Use, Aug., 96; Negro Liberation: Unfinished Business, Dec., 58.

Gannett, Betty—Crisis in Southeast Asia, July, 21; Automation and the Negro Worker, Aug., 80.

Green, Gilbert—The Debate on Socialist Perspectives in the U.S.A., Mar., 18.
Hall, Gus—Myths or Realities: Communists and Catholics, May, 14.
Jerome, V. J.—The King Who Never Was, Mar., 55; Comments by the Author, May, 55; People Meets People, Nov. 29.
Johnson, Oakley C.—Portrait of a Great Utopian, Feb., 60; The First Marxist Party in the U.S.A., Sept., 43.
Kane, Joseph—Khrushchev's Egyptain Visit: Some Observations, Oct., 54.
Krchmarek, A.—The Anti-Segregation Battle in Ohio, June, 13; The Upset in Ohio, Dec., 28.
Lambert, Simon—The Aged and Their Needs, Dec., 53.
Lawson, Elizabeth—A Glorious Page in History, Jan., 59.
L. B.—Hotel Siege Ends in Victory, Apr., 55.
Leonard, Bill—The Undeclared War, Feb., 63.
Levine, Ben—Psychoanalysis Dissected, July, 62.
Lima, Albert J.—The California Primary Elections, May, 36; The Author Replies, Oct., 63; Why Proposition 14 Won, Dec., 20.
London, Andrea—Automation and the Youth, Aug., 89.
Lumer, Hyman—Government in Collective Bargaining, Feb., 8; President Johnson's Economic Program, Mar., 9; Organized Labor and Government, Apr., 12; Is Human Labor Becoming Obsolete, Aug., 3; Elizabeth Gurley Flynn: A Tribute, Oct., 15; Proletarian Internationalism and Bourgeois Nationalism, Nov., 6.
Meyers, George—Coal Mining Today, The Industry and the Miners, April, 23; Comments by the Author, June, 55; The Wallace Campaign in Maryland, July, 6.
Newberry, Mike—The Myths of the Right: Facts and Fancies, Jan., 30.
Olsen, Robert—The Ultra-Right Exposed, Apr., 58.
Patterson, William L.—Mr. A. D. Fuller and Negro Unity, Feb., 57; Some Aspects of the Mallory Conviction, Apr., 51; Defender of Angelo Herndon, Sept., 6.
Pennsylvania Reader—The UMW and the Coal Miners, June, 53.
Perlo, Victor—Social Effects of the Scientific-Technological Revolution, Aug., 20.
R. A. C.—The Referendum on "Open Housing," Oct., 63.
Reynolds, Joseph—Not All Heroes and Heretics, Nov., 45.
Reyob, Harold—Comment on "Why the People Mourned," May, 59.
Richmond, Al—The Great Radical Temptation, Sept., 32.
Rosette, Marcelle—The Struggle for Democracy and Socialism in France, Oct., 26.
Shiffrin, Ray—A Heroic Epic, Mar., 61.
Simon, Will—New York State in the Anti-Goldwater Front. Oct., 20.
Stachel, Jack—The 88th Congress, Feb., 18.
Taylor, William C.—A Communist Runs for Office, Sept., 13.
Togliatti, Palmiro—On International Working-Class Unity, Oct., 38.
Victor, Jim—The Theater of the Absurd, Jan., 51; Author Replies, June, 57.
Weinstone, William—A Crude Distortion of History, July, 58.
Wheeler, George Shaw—Automation and the Social Character of Production, Aug., 45.
Winter, Carl—Automation and Collective Bargaining, Aug., 69.
Wofsey, Isadore—1894-1964, Nov., 62.